

Local hunters shot a large number of wild ducks on Knott's dam Monday morning.

County Treasurer Pugh is having a hot water heater put in his residence, just east of town.

A handsome six-year-old black horse was sold at Sheriff's sale, in front of the court house, Monday morning, for $300.

The Somerset Hardware Company was last week chartered by the State Department. The company is capitalized at $143,000.

An unknown man who claimed Pittsburgh as his home, committed suicide at the Hotel Vannear, Johnston, Sunday afternoon, by firing a bullet into his head.

Daniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Lichty, of Somerset township, who removed to Waterloo, Iowa, seven years ago arrived in town Saturday evening.

Charles Kane, representative of the American Art Studio, of Johnston, Pa., is in town for the purpose of being in Somerset to deliver their portraits between December 2nd and 6th.

School teachers will find the first page of this paper of special interest. On it are printed copies of extracts from Thaddeus Stevens' great speech on the free school system, and other historical material relating to the common school system.

Friday night's entertainment will be one of the finest musical evenings ever enjoyed by a Somerset audience. The sale of tickets for this performance has been large, but many good seats still remain for sale at Neff & Casbeer's.

Scarlet fever has made its appearance in different parts of the county. Seven children in the family of Israel Hertz, of Brooksville, Pa., were taken with the disease last week and one of them died. The disease is reported to be in the family of Mrs. W. W. Wommer, Mr. Hertz has positively declined to allow an examination of men, to be made in his family.

Deer are said to be plentiful in the mountain in Shade and Ogle townships. Last Thursday morning a herd of four passed between the dwelling and barn of James Vaner, Logan, in the former district. They were seen by a number of people.

New Baltimore telephone connection with all of the principal towns in Bedford county and will probably have it with Somerset, Berlin and Meyersdale in the near future. An agent of the telephone company is in town at present, looking over the ground.

It is to be regretted that a large audience was not present at the meeting of the Somerset County Teachers' Institute, held at the Hotel Vannear, on Thursday evening, when Rev. T. J. Bristow delivered his lecture on "Sticks and Umbrellas." The lecture was replete with elevated, thought and wholesome anecdote.

About this season of the year, for very many years past, rattling for turkeys has been carried on in different shops and offices in this place, but not until last week was the law invoked to put a stop to this species of gambling. The parties accused of keeping a gambling house all night long, were taken to the jail, and the law is being enforced.

Prof. J. D. Meese of the California State Normal, was an early Monday morning arrival at the Hotel Vannear. Teachers' Institute without the presence of the county professor would be a serious defect, and he is a popular and able instructor. He is a native of this county, and has a personal acquaintance with a majority of the teachers.

The "reel" lady, whose mysterious movements have caused so much excitement in neighboring towns, has gone to Meyersdale. The woman dresses in black and white, and frequently is seen brilliantly illuminated portions of the town at such times as is unusual for women to be found on the streets. Many of the people are afraid to venture out in the streets after dark.

John A. Lichty, who resided on the farm at present occupied by George Duhon, was captured by the Indian Commission on the night of the 15th inst. near the town of Shade. He was taken to the Indian Commission at Shade, Pa., and is being held there. He is a native of this county, and has a personal acquaintance with a majority of the teachers.

The First of the Season. William Gahagan, of Somerset county, was in town Wednesday, bringing with him a large number of turkeys. He was out hunting with James Mangus and besides the deer he killed a big wild cat that ventured across his farm. Gahagan was as proud as a peacock of his prowess and he wore a waving plume in his cap.—Johnston Democrat.

Samuel Belles. "Squire Samuel Compton, of Elk Lick township, is the possessor of a fine lot of Indian relics, among which are flint arrow heads, stone hatchets of fine finish, an implement of stone, altogether far most likely that it is the finest collection of the kind in this county. There is besides these a very large stone that is in its way quite as much a curiosity as any of the relics. This is a large stone, of a conical or sugar loaf shape, perfectly dressed, with a large hole through the center. Its weight is said to be fully a ton and it was found somewhere in the vicinity of the town of Shade. Mr. Compton is greatly puzzled both as to its origin and its use; some seem to think it an Indian relic, while others as stoutly maintain it is a relic of the prehistoric age. Mr. Compton is unable to assign any use to which it could have been adapted. The very latest assertion that we have heard concerning this certainly curious stone is that it is a relic of the prehistoric age, and that it is a relic of the prehistoric age, and that it is a relic of the prehistoric age.

A Deacon Boy's Wedding Day. Mr. D. O'Connor, son of James O'Connor, Esq., of Lower Juniata, will be united in marriage with Miss Mary O'Connor, daughter of the late John O'Connor, on Monday, December 3rd, at 10 o'clock this morning. The ceremony will take place in Holy Angels Catholic church in that city.

The groom is well-known throughout the south of Somerset. He was formerly employed as a clerk in the office of the late John O'Connor, who had the contract of clearing that city. Later he removed to Hartford, Conn., where he is employed as a general agent for the late John O'Connor, who had the contract of clearing that city. Notices will be sent out to-day or tomorrow calling the attention of cigar and tobacco dealers to the fact that the Board of School Controllers on November 4. Resolutions were then passed stating that hereafter the law relating to the selling of tobacco and cigars to boys under the age of 16 years will be enforced.

Principals and teachers were instructed to collect evidence against dealers and other pupils who sell or give cigarettes to pupils under the specified age. A committee of three was appointed to prosecute violators of the law. A copy of the anti-cigarette selling law is appended to the notice.—Commercial Gleaner.

Will Elze Establishes. Owing to the ambiguity of the Act of Assembly of 1889 relating to the election of constables in this state, the commission of some were dated 1889 and others 1890, but for a three-year term, so that the election of constables is difficult to tell in many precincts when the constables should be elected. The last session of the assembly passed an act, which requires election of constables to be made next spring in every precinct, and the act is being enforced.

TUESDAY MORNING SESSION. Ira G. Carver presided at the teachers' session from 8:30 to 9:45. "Use and Abuse of School Supplies," was discussed by Albert Lambert, A. L. Mast, C. S. Schumacher and Superintendent Berkeley.

Prof. Speicher, in response to a query: "How Can Our Schools Procure Literature?" said the only sure way was to get the directors to hold school exhibitions, festivals, etc., for this purpose.

An entirely original production and one of the most and most practical ever published in this county. It is a paper by Miss Ida Shoemaker, of Meyersdale on "Busy Work for Primary Pupils."

The regular session was very interesting, owing mainly to the fact that the instruction was given in a happy manner. Practical suggestions are always welcomed by the teachers. To the young teacher, perhaps more than others, the principles, as well as the practice, are of great importance. The speakers were, Ira G. Carver, Prof. Speicher, and Superintendent Berkeley.

The session was called to order by Prof. Speicher, who presided. The first speaker was Prof. Speicher, who presided. The first speaker was Prof. Speicher, who presided. The first speaker was Prof. Speicher, who presided.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. Highest of all in Leaving Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report. First Session of the 39th Annual Convention of County School Teachers. Two hundred and seventy-nine out of a total of two hundred and ninety-five teachers employed in the county, answered roll-call at the opening session of the 39th annual Teachers' Institute, in the Court House, Monday afternoon. In addition to the teachers, there were present a number of laymen from different parts of the county. The presence of three or four hundred ladies and gentlemen from the different parts of the county, from Somerset township, there was not an unoccupied seat, and standing room was at a premium when Superintendent Berkeley called for order promptly at 1:30. After the audience had assembled in the hall, the superintendent of the Institute, Mr. J. H. Kretschmer, read a lesson from the Bible Church, read a lesson from the 13th Ecclesiastics: "Remember Now Thy Creator in the Days of Thy Youth." Upon the completion of the lesson the minister offered an invocation that appeared to touch the hearts of his large audience.

Ex-County Superintendent Sanner, who was the spokesman to deliver the "Address of Welcome," was warmly applauded when he arose. After the usual perfunctory words of welcome, he broadened out into a series of practical and timely duties of teachers. His address was well received and has since been highly spoken of by all who heard it.

J. H. Kretschmer, principal of the Berlin schools, responded to the address of welcome in a masterly and effective manner. Voicing the sentiments of a majority of the teachers, he paid a neat tribute to Superintendent Berkeley for his address, and concluded his remarks by saying that the teachers had not come here simply on a pleasure jaunt or for recreation, but to acquire knowledge and to be instructed by the eminent educators who had been brought here for that purpose.

Prof. Arnold Thompson, of the Illinois University, Chicago, was introduced by Superintendent Berkeley. He is a school manager that showed him to be a past-master in the profession. The doctor has a charming address that wins him friends without apparent effort on his part. His popularity in Somerset county teachers was assured after his first appearance.

Prof. DeMotte, who had been assigned the last period at this session, was unable to be present on account of illness. He was represented by the eminent educator, Dr. Schumacher, of the West Chester State Normal, supplied his place, delivering a highly entertaining talk on "Nature."

It is doubtful whether a Somerset County Teachers' Institute address was ever more highly or profitably entertained than Monday night's large audience was by Prof. J. H. DeMotte, who delivered his illustrated lecture on "Electricity," which is so rapidly revolutionizing our civilization. The lecturer traced the development of the magnetic current from its earliest discovery down to the present time, and furnished a number of marvellous discoveries, such as light without heat, soon to be made public. His remarks were so clear, notwithstanding they dealt with the most scientific and difficult to understand, that it was difficult to tell in many precincts when the constables should be elected. The last session of the assembly passed an act, which requires election of constables to be made next spring in every precinct, and the act is being enforced.

WANTED—A NAME. Several Good Gals Suggested for the New Hotel. A number of our lady readers have already availed themselves of the opportunity to select a name for the summer hotel, now in course of erection on Taylor's Hill. One writer wants to know if the names of all the ladies suggesting names will be published in the HERALD, certainly not at this time. Only the names suggested for the hotel will be published, and the identity of the ladies making the suggestions will be kept secret until after the board of directors has expressed upon seven names from which the name of the house will be selected. After the hotel directors have made their selection, the HERALD will give the names of all the ladies who have entered the contest.

A Friends young lady writes: "Name the new hotel 'Mt. Airy Hotel,' because of its elevation."

"The site occupied by the hotel company is one of the most important in the middle states, occupying as it does, with possibly one or two exceptions, the most elevated ground in Pennsylvania. It commands a view of the Allegheny, Neversink and Hill Mountains, and therefore in justice to the location if for no other reason the hotel should be called 'Mountainview House.'" STELLA.

"I think 'Gethsemane' would be a real sweet name for the hotel, if it is English, but it has been adopted by several of the principal resorts in the United States. F. S."

"I think the most appropriate name for the new resort" writes a Somerset girl, "would be 'Stadia,' in honor of Mr. W. A. Scott, Jr., who is the chief promoter of the enterprise. 'Stadia' is sweet to the ear and appeals to the imagination. Certainly the 'Highlands of Scotland' are not more beautiful than the highlands of Somerset. E. S."

"The name of the new hotel should be romantic and I would suggest that it be called 'Hickory Hollow Inn,' since the tract of land to be converted into a pleasure ground for the guests of the house has long been known as 'Hickory Hollow.'" MOLLY.

"Tayman Lodge," has an attractive name, and is a very good one. It is a name that has long been known as 'Hickory Hollow.'" MOLLY.
